A MESSAGE FROM YOUR LIBRARIAN-----

Dear neighbor,

Morton Grove is fortunate in having this fine facility. Not only does it provide books for the education, enrichment and entertainment of all age groups, but it also presents programs which inform and entertain. The information in this brochure indicates the extent of service available in the Morton Grove Public Library to every resident which makes it, in every sense of the word, the community's cultural center.

Because we could not give in detail each aspect of our service, we urge you to come in or call us when you have any questions. Our staff is prepared to answer any reference or information questions you may have, to tell you when the Maxiwagon will be at a stop near your home, or how long a film showing will last. We also welcome suggestions from you, whether they be for books to purchase, services to add, or programs to establish. As a result of such suggestions, we are beginning a new book discussion group and also a weekly crafts session for senior citizens.

We invite you to come in to get a book to read, a record to listen to, attend a program or just get acquainted. We think you'll be glad you did!

LIBRARY SERVICES FOR YOUR USE

Reference Assistance

Our professional staff will answer any and all reference or general information questions in person or by phone. They will help students find the reference materials they need and will help businessmen find pertinent financial and economic material.

Maxiwagon Service

Our Maxiwagon provides transportation for patrons to and from the library. It stops at all Morton Grove parks and at Parkview School, so that children and adults can take out or return books at those locations. It also takes books to shut-ins and to Bethany Terrace. See schedule.

Book Reservations

Books may be reserved by filling out a reserve post card for 15 cents. The patrons will be notified when the book is available.

Reciprocal Borrowing Program

Every Morton Grove Public Library card can be used in any North Suburban Library System library or the Chicago Public Library.

Interlibrary Loan

Books not found in our collection may be obtained from other agencies through an interlibrary loan.

Central Serials Service

If a magazine is not available, a photostatic copy of an article may be ordered from Central Serials Service, which is housed in your library. The staff will search anywhere in the country for your magazine.

SPECIAL PURPOSE COLLECTIONS

Consumer information guides

Financial reference works

Telephone directories of major cities

Philosophy and psychology collection

College catalogues

CARD AND BOOK REGULATIONS

You may receive your library card after you fill out and sign an application. Children's applications must be signed by one parent. Two books may be borrowed immediately upon registrations.

Materials are loaned for short or long term, approximately 2 to 4 weeks. Long terms may be renewed, short terms may not.

Overdue charges are 5 cents a day for books, records and films, 4 cents a day for paperbacks and 2 cents a day for pamphlets and pictures.

Library cards must be presented by the borrower for use in the charging machine when books are borrowed. If your card is lost, a charge is made for a duplicate.
